The Three Miltonists

The Three Miltonists

According to

Dr. Robert J. Wickenheiser

My good fortune to be with two great artists of our time, Bienvenido Banez and Terrance Lindall. Several of Bien's drawings illustrating Paradise Lost and a major grouping of original drawings by Terrance Lindall as well as the only other copy of his magnificent elephant folio illustrating Paradise Lost in the style of a medieval manuscript are in my private Milton collection and will ultimately become center pieces in my Milton collection in Rare Books and Special Collections at the University of Special Collections.

We finally got the right cabinet for part of the Milton Collection, donated by a major antiques dealer in Manhattan.

Dr. Robert J. Wickenheiser

"Bienvenido Banes Banez, Jr." is a Filipino surrealist painter born in Davao City in the southern island of Mindanao, the Philippines, on June 7, 1962. Having suffered from mild childhood autism and attention deficiency disorder, he became a fine example for parents with special children as he rose to comparative international prominence when he was counted in as one of early 21st century's greatest living surrealists by Terrance Lindall, president and executive director of the Williamsburg Art and Historical Center in New York.

His Milton work is now in the U. of South Carolina Milton Collection and the Milton Cottage Collection.

ae Bienvenido Bones Banez did a wonderful drawing:

To Bob

from Terrance:

This drawing by Bien is truly wonderful! Glorious Satan leaps for joy at Adam being seduced. This is by my colleague Bienvenido Banez, Jr. It was given to the Yoko Ono Foundation for the Milton collection. Utterly fantastic. It captures precisely. I call his art "Floro Electric." Notice that Adam & Eve are now be entwined in flames of Hell and snakes. A great conceptual point!!!! The the Ben's work is the "World of 666" focusing on Satan being "Perfect in Prett

He is a mighty Paradise Lost illustrator.

My colleague Diemwendi Rosen Bauer did a wonderful drawing.

by Ron

From Terrance

This drawing by Ron is truly wonderful! Glorious Satan leaps for joy at Adam and Eve being seduced. This is by my colleague Diemwendi Rosen Bauer. If it was given to the Yale Art Foundation for the Milton collection, I'd be happy. I call his art "Fiero Electric." Notice that Adam & Eve are now becoming entwined in flames of Hell and snakes. A great conceptual poem!! The theme of all of his work is the "World of 166" focusing on Satan being "Perfect in Perfection."

He is a mighty Paradox Lost illustrator.

Fore-edge Painting

Dr. Wickenheiser with a specially bound copy of his collection catalog, having a painting under glass of Milton on the cover and with fore-edge paintings of Eve and other scenes (not shown). fore-edge painting is a scene painted on the edges of the pages of a book. There are two basic forms, including paintings on edges that have been fanned and edges that are closed; thus with the first instance a book edge must be fanned to see the painting

On April 14 & 15, 2012, Dr. Robert J. Wickenheiser will talk about his collecting experiences at the Williamsburg Art & Historical Center in Williamsburg Brooklyn. He will also display some of his collection. The 928 page sumptuously illustrated catalog will be available for purchase...and maybe he will sign it. The Wicknenheiser Milton collection, now at the University of South Carolina, has been called by Professor John Shawcross, the "hands down" greatest Milton collection ever assemble.
